

Join the Voice of the Retail Industry in the Court System

The Retail Litigation Center (RLC) is the voice of the retail industry in the judicial branch. Created by the Retail Industry Leaders Association, the RLC is dedicated to providing appellate courts with retail industry perspectives on significant legal issues. To date, the RLC has filed amicus briefs on issues key to the industry such as labor, class action certification standards, patents, and debit card interchange.

The RLC is a 501(c)(6) membership association. Corporate membership is open to all retailers. Dues are determined based on annual revenue.
