Dues payments to trade associations, such as RILA, are generally deductible as an ordinary business expense for federal income tax purposes. However, under the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, such income tax deduction is denied for the portion of your dues attributable to expenses incurred for the purpose of lobbying or intervening in an election. RILA estimates that 65% of your dues will be attributable to lobbying expenses. Therefore, 65% of these dues are non-deductible for federal income tax purposes.
